WHO WAS PETER GREENWOOD?

Peter was Deputy Head at Thorn Park School for Deaf Children in Bradford.

He worked hard to improve access to education for Deaf people, particularly those about to leave school.

Peter was an avid football fan and tragically, he lost his life in the fire at Bradford City's Valley Parade football ground in May 1985 – his two sons Rupert and Felix also died with him.

The Peter Greenwood Memorial Trust was set up in 1986 by Peter's widow, Hazel. The trust aims to provide financial support for people in the deaf and hard of hearing community through small cash grants, helping them continue their studies in secondary, higher or further education or in training institutions. The Trust's area of operation is England and Wales.

WHO RUNS THE TRUST?

A small team of volunteers (trustees), including members from the Deaf Community, manages a trust fund established using donations made in Peter Greenwood's memory. Each year, some of the money in the fund is given out as small grants to people who apply to the Trust for this help. The Fund is kept going by generous donations made by individuals and organisations.

WHAT CAN A GRANT BE USED FOR?

A grant can be used to buy books and equipment needed for studying or training. Sometimes a grant is offered to help with travel or accommodation expenses related to studies or training. A grant may sometimes be used for other purposes related to studying so please ask!

AM I ELIGIBLE TO APPLY FOR A GRANT?

You must be able to show that you are either deaf or hard of hearing by securing the support of a sponsor – this must be someone who knows you well, and who works with you professionally, such as a lecturer, teacher, social worker or doctor. Your sponsor should not be a member of your family or a friend. They will be asked to confirm that you are deaf or have a hearing loss.

WILL I GET THE AMOUNT I APPLY FOR?

If your application is approved, the amount of money you might receive depends on how many other people apply and how much money is available from the Trust fund. The decision of the Trustees is final.
